

PDCA Accreditation Code of Ethics

This Code of Conduct serves as the foundation for PDCA Accreditation. Every Accredited Contractor has agreed to adopt these guiding principles in all business activities.

PLEDGE OF ACCREDITED CONTRACTORS

- ◆ To develop through continuing education a high degree of business and technical knowledge.
- ◆ To faithfully fulfill all contracts.
- ◆ To adhere to federal, state and local laws, and administrative regulations regarding the use and disposal of paints and supplies.
- ◆ To establish and maintain a high level of reciprocal respect and goodwill with all segments of the industry.
- ◆ To provide a safe working environment by establishing good safety practices in compliance with federal, state and local laws, and administrative regulations
- ◆ To conduct individual operations according to the highest professional and industry standards.
- ◆ To conduct oneself in a professional and ethical manner at all times.
- ◆ To promote the spirit of this Code throughout our profession and industry.
- ◆ To report to PDCA, contractors tarnishing the Accreditation privilege (through misuse of the Accreditation logo or other Accreditation violations).

PDCA'S OBLIGATION TO ACCREDITED CONTRACTORS

- ◆ To encourage the free exchange of ideas.
- ◆ To maintain receptivity to suggestions and the willingness to adapt to the changing needs of learners.
- ◆ To continually develop and expand the educational offerings presented through Contractor College.
- ◆ To promote all the precepts of this Code.
- ◆ To present a broad and favorable image of the painting and decorating profession and industry across the nation.
- ◆ To promote equal treatment of all learners.
- ◆ To provide quality, fact-based, progressive education through industry conventions, the internet and participating councils, chapters and forums.

This contractor has read and agrees to adopt the Accreditation Code of Ethics in all business activities and understands that failure to adhere to the Accreditation Code of Ethics herein may result in suspension or revocation of Accreditation.

---

SIGNATURE

DATE

---

PRINT NAME

TITLE

COMPANY